

Year 1 History

Areas of Learning

- My family.
- Toys.
- Homes.
- Significant events (e.g. the Great Fire of London).
- Significant people (e.g. Van Gogh, Monet, etc.).

Approaches to learning

- Changes within living memory (me and my family – timeline from baby to adult).
- Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally (e.g. toys now and then, where we live now and in the past).
- The lives of significant individuals in the past (e.g. artists, architects, etc).

Examples of learning

Pupils are exposed to a variety of materials in order to understand a historical timeline now and then.

References

Primary Curriculum 2014: <http://www.primarycurriculum.me.uk/>